Use your Social Studies book, classroom atlas, wall map, almanac, or globe to answer the following questions. Your answers should be written in complete sentences. List your information source.

1. Which continent is cut almost in half by the equator?

2. Explain the purpose of the key on a map.

3. What is the capital of the state that shares its long southern border with Texas?

4. What color is shown the most on a map of the world?

5. What state is between Mississippi and Georgia?

6. What river forms the border between Indiana and Kentucky?

7. What does green on a map usually mean, water or land?

8. Name at least three bodies of water that touch the United States.

9. What two countries border the United States?

10. Describe the location of the Rocky Mountains in relation to where you live.